

SHOUT ABOUT YOUR VOLUNTEERING

My name is Norman and I live in Mitcham.

I give my time to the Glebe Court Management Organisation and help make the place that I live a better community.

I give my time by attending meetings and helping people with things that are huge problems to them but can be resolved with a little support.

What do I enjoy about giving my time?

I also have enjoyed making links with students who have come and kept the gardens around the homes looking pleasant.

One of the things I enjoy most is going into a 'void', which is a vacant home, and helping get it ready for a new resident.

The biggest problem I have is trying to encourage all the people who live here to get involved. Everyone doing a little bit will make a difference. We are all from different walks of life and by listening and helping we can become good friends and that doesn't cost any money and can bring happiness.

My volunteering contributes to Merton by helping my little patch of the Borough be the best it can be. If we all just say 'yes we can' to helping out we will enjoy living here.
